

	Consent for a change of address of a child, to or from Iceland	A-143E
		Útgáfa: 1.2
		Dags.útg.: 10.02.2026

National Register

When a child, who has two custodians or whose custody is unknown, moves to or from Iceland with only one parent, or custodian, the custodian/parent must obtain the consent of the person who is not moving before the legal address of the child can be registered. This form provides consent only and does not constitute notification of a new domicile.

Child 's information

Full name:
ID no./ kennitala / date of birth:	Country the child is moving to:

Information about the parent consenting the change	Information about parent the child is moving with
---	--

Full name:	Full name:
ID no. / kennitala / date of birth:	ID no. / kennitala / date of birth
E-mail address:	E-mail address:

Signature of the parent consenting the registration of the child

I hereby declare with my signature that I give consent for my child's change of address and moving to the country specified above. Only the person consenting to the change of address need to sign the declaration.
The parent that is not moving to Iceland must submit a photocopy of their passport or ID card along with this form.

Signature	Date
-----------	------

Declaration of joint custody - optional

Registration of joint custody is not mandatory. Where custody documents cannot be provided, the section below may be completed to declare joint custody.

We, the parents hereby declare with our signature that we have joint custody over our child/children and we agree that joint custody will be registered in the National Register.

Signature	Date
Signature	Date